

Thank you for the purchase of in-season NBA stats access at BigDataBall.com!

This is a short documentation to help you access in-season datasets that you've purchased.

- If you already have signed up before: Just sign in to access data sets:

<https://www.bigdataball.com/member-login>

Make sure your email address (you've used when giving the order) and BigDataBall registration email address do match. If these two email addresses are different, let us know.

- If you haven't signed up before: After your in-season stats purchase:
  - You should have received an automated email (check out your email address you used in your order) including your unique sign-up link so that you can create your account. Click that link in the email and set up your username and password.
  - If you have not received an email with a signup link: Create your account manually at any time and let us know. We can link your subscription with your new, manually created account. Create an account here manually: <https://www.bigdataball.com/create-an-account/>
  - Once you sign up, you should receive an account activation email. Look for an activation email in your inbox first, and check out your spam/junk folder.
No activation email? Let us know by sending an email to info@bigdataball.com

Access in-season stats here (as long as your subscription remains active)
